In obedience to an order of the worshipful the Court of Powhatan County, we, the undersigned, being first sworn, having viewed and appraised the personal estate of Benjamin Boatwright decd and find it to consist of the articles above specified, and of the value above stated.

Given under our hands this 16th day of August in the year 1816. Peter Dupery

John Maxey Jun (Jr)
Joseph B. Davis

At a Court of monthly sessions holden for the County of Powhatan on the 21st day of August 1816.

This appraisement of the personal estate of Benjamin Boatwright deceased was presented in Court and was by the Court ordered to be recorded.

Wm S. Dance, C.

Without prior approval of the Court, Elizabeth moved the family and Estate Property of Benjamin to Kentucky; leaving her Uncle William Blackburn responsible under bond to the Court for administration of the Estate, and without the ability to perform. William Blackburn took legal action to protect his bond.

To the Honorable Judge of the Garrard [County, KY] Circuit Court in Chancery sitting, the orator, William Blackburn, complaining, showeth unto your honor that Benjamin Boatright, late of Powhatan County Virginia, departed this life intestate on the day of June, 1816 in said County of Powhatan, and on the 17th day of July 1816, Elizabeth Boatright, his widow, who is made defendant hereto, qualified as his Administratrix in the County Court of said County and then and there entered into an Administration Bond with George Mosely and your orator, as her securities in the penalty of $5,000 dollars a copy of which bond for greater certainty is here exhibited marked Exhibit A.

The personal estate constituting appoints and then have aforesaid addition was appraised to $2,674.60 dollars as will appear by reference to a certified copy of said appraisement here exhibited and marked B. decedent at his death left the following children, the following heirs to wit: Martha, James, William, Eliza, Allen, RhodeAnne, Lucy, and Benjamin Boatright. The last five of whom are infants. About three years ago, said Administrator, with the said children, who are also made defendants, removed to Garrard County, in Kentucky, without having returned any Inventory of said estate, or have made any settlement thereof with the County Court of Powhatan, that he knows of, and bringing with her all or most of the said estate, or its proceeds, she made no allotment for distribution of said estate among said children, but is managing and disposing of the same, as if it were her own.

Your orator is apprehensive that said estate may be wasted or illegally and improvidently managed to his eventual injury as security as aforesaid. By removal to Kentucky said Elizabeth has become unexcessible by the County Court of Powhatan. In this predicament your orator does not only endanger of ultimate liability and loss as security but is removeless except in your Court of Chancery.

In tender consideration whereof and as he is remediless at law, he prays interposition of your Honor he prays that defendant may be compelled to answer this bill. Harris, Edward C. Mosby, William Stratton, Jr., and Daniel Taylor be appointed commissioners any three or more of whom to act to sell the land mentioned in the bill of the plaintiffs except the widow’s dower on such terms as they may deem advisable taking bond and security for the purchase money and retaining the title until it shall all be paid. That as the purchase money shall become due and is received they shall pay over one sixth part of it to Isaac N. Cardozo in right of his wife Mahala, one sixth part to Edward A. Lynch in right of his wife Harriett, one sixth part to Edward F. Baugh on his lawful attorney, one sixth part to Sarah A. Baugh, and one sixth part to Wm. H. Baugh and Lucy Baugh respectively as they arrive at the age of twenty one years, or to their guardians respectively should such be assigned them before they arrive at that age. That the said commissioners (any three or more of whom to act) after the widow’s dower shall have been laid off in the slaves belonging to the estate of Edward F. Baugh dec’d shall divide the remainder of said slaves into six lots as equal as possible making the distributees pay the differences if any to each other . . . the commissioners are to take into consideration any advancements which may have been made to any of the said distributees by the said Edward F. Baugh dec’d in his lifetime, and abate their portions accordingly by the value of such advancement at the time they were made . . .”

[4 Feb 1839]

“This cause came on this day to be again heard upon the papers formerly read and the report of the commissioners of the division of the slaves in the bill mentioned and was argued by the counsel . . . after laying off the widow’s dower, have proceeded to perform that duty as follows – Having in the first place in pursuance of another decree of the same Court allotted to Mrs. Martha Baugh widow of Edward F. Baugh dec’d her third of the slaves of which he died possessed to be held by her for life, we then proceeded to value the remaining two thirds consisting of:

Mat, a man about 56 years old valued at $400.00

Henry, a boy - $700.00

Abby, a woman about 28 years old - $450.00

Nancy, a girl - $350.00

Eady, a small girl - $150.00

And your com’s being informed that the intestate in his life time gave to his son Ed. F. Baugh, Jr. a young negro man which he valued at $700 and a bed which we value at $20 and to Ed. A.

Lynch who married his daughter Harriett a negro girl which we value at $400 & to Isaac N. Cardozo who married his daughter Mahala a bed which we value at $20, we have determined to add these advancements to the gross valuation of the slaves & then divide the amount as directed by the decree aforesaid, which advancement amounts to the sum of $1,140, making the [total] sum of $4,165.00 from which sum should be deducted $125 for supporting an old negro woman named Molly . . . Edward F. Baugh, Jr. having received an advancement . . . And we have allotted to him [Ed. A. Lynch] Bidy . . . and Eady . . . The remaining slaves were then divided into four lots and drawn as follows:

- Lot No. 1 – Ike, a young man . . . and this lot to support old Molly . . . was drawn by Lucy Baugh
- Lot No. 2 – Henry, a boy . . . was drawn by Sarah A. Baugh
- Lot No. 3 – Abby, a woman . . . was drawn by Wm. H. Baugh
- Lot No. 4 – Mat, a man, Nancy, a girl . . . was drawn by Isaac N. Cardozo”

“This indenture made . . . between Edward F. Baugh & Samantha O., his wife, of County of [blank] in the State of Mississippi of the one part, and Geo. Taylor, it being the same tract or parcel of land which was allotted to the said Edward F. Baugh in the division of the real estate of his father Edward F. Baugh deceased . . .”

“ . . . orator Edward F. Baugh that his father Edward F. Baugh Senr. departed this life in the County of Powhatan in the year 1838 without having made any last will and testament and that administration upon his estate was granted by the County Court of Powhatan to Rich'd F. Graves, Esquire. That for many years previous to the death of your orator's father to wit from sometime in [Mar 1831] untill about [1 Oct 1835] your orator lived with his father in the capacity of an overseer under a contract with him by which he was to pay your orator one seventh part of the crop made upon the plantation for his services. That during the whole . . . period he faithfully discharged his duty as an overseer and about [1 Oct 1835] he left his father's employment with his consent and removed to the State of Mississippi, where he has ever since resided until the early part of 1841. That previous to setting out for the west he frequently made application to his father for a settlement of their accounts which was general postponed not from any unwillingness on the part of his father to come to a settlement but from some reason or other at the time, of a temporary character. That about the time of his leaving Virginia his father put into his possession a negro boy by the name of Albert which he valued to him at $700 to the account of his claim against him. That he also gave him $50 in cash and paid sundry other small sums of money for him an amount of which will be filed herewith before the trial of this cause. That at the time he received Albert his father promised to give him a bill of sale for him, which he expected to be able to procure, but which he neglected to do. That the said Edward F. Baugh departed this life suddenly in a fit of apoplexy in the year 1838 and at the November C[our]t following a friendly bill and . . . as it would deem was exhibited in the County Court of Powhatan for a division and settlement of his estate. That in this bill your orator with a portion of the other children of the s[ai]d Edward F. Baugh were made plaintiffs, without any consent whatever on the part of your orator for that purpose, and a desire for a division of the estate was had and in pursuance thereof. The commission appointed for that purpose made a division of the slaves among his widow and children and returned the same to Powhatan County C[our]t whch at the February term of said court was approved and admitted to record no exemption being filed . . . all of which will more fully appear by reference to the record of s[ai]d C[our]t a copy of which will be filed before the trial of this cause. All these proceedings took place during your orator's absence in a distant state, without his knowledge or consent, and the first information which he rec[eive]d as he now recollects was upon a short visit which he made to the State of VA in the year 1839 after the report of the division had been admitted to record. That it will appear by reference to the report of the commission who divided his father's negroes that said distribution was entitled to receive in slaves, property to the value of $673.33. That the said commission wholly unapprized of the character of the claim by which he had received the boy Albert from his father, proceeded to value him as a part of the decedent's estate, and in the division made your orator account for him as an advancement, and actually bought by your orator in debt for the sum of $46.67. . . . That your orator is not disposed to cast concern on the commissioners, all of whom are intelligent and honorable men, but his misfortune has been that they acted without a knowledge of the fact that his claim to Albert was not in the nature of an advancement by his father, but a sale to him in pay[men]t of his claim upon him for an actual debt.

. . . He therefore prays that Rich'd F. Graves the Adm[inistrato]r aforesaid, together with the widow Mrs. Martha Baugh, and Isaac N. Cardozo and Mahala his wife, Edward A. Lynch & Harriet his wife, Sarah A. Baugh, Wm. H. Baugh, and Lucy Jane Baugh be made defendants hereto and that they be compelled to answer the several allegations of this bill on oath and that your Honour will accord to him the relief before pray'd for and make such other and further order herein as justice and equity may dictate and the nature of his case may regain & grant all proper . . .”
