Blackwelder, John (age 30y-4m; killed at Battle of Gettysburg [??])		d. 9 Jul 1864 [??]	#5416
Blackwelder, Mary (wife of John Blackwelder)	b. 10 Oct 1835	d. 18 May 1894	#5416/1

[Note: In John Blackwelder's Confederate pension file, it says he died 13 December 1862 at the Battle of Fredericksburg, VA, and was brought back to Cabarrus County to be buried in the Mount Giliad Cemetery. The inscription on his gravestone needs to be doublechecked to verify the date of death and reference to the Battle of Gettysburg, which appears to be incorrect, as Gettysburg was in 1863, not 1864. This information came from a published cemetery listing. – MBA 22 Feb 2003]

Cabarrus Co., Concord, The Times, 11 Feb 1886 {18704}

"We regret to learn of the death of Mr. George Cline [#542/1], which occurred last Sunday at the residence of his son in law, Mr. Ransom Blackwelder, about four miles from Concord on the Mt. Pleasant road. He was 93 years old, and was one of the most substantial men of this county."

Cabarrus Co., Concord, The Times, 25 Feb 1886 {18705}

"Obituary – Today, Feb. 9th, we laid away to rest in our church cemetery the mortal remains of Father George Cline [#542/1], father of Archibald and Wiley Cline. His age was 91 years, nine months and sixteen days.

In his infancy he was baptized in old St. Joh'n church by Rev. Adolphus Neusman, the first regular pastor of St. John's and . . . remained in the same congregation . . . up to the time of his death.

He married Esther Blackwelder June 15, 1819, with whom he lived nearly sixty years. She died March 4th, 1879. He was the father of five children, two sons and three daughters, one daughter dead; seventeen grandchildren, fourteen living; thirty nine great grandchildren, thirty three living.

All of his children are members of our St. John's congregation . . .

R. W. Petrea"

Cabarrus Co., Concord & Kannapolis, Independent Tribune, 5 Feb 2003, Obituary of Rev. Robin Blackwelder [#526536415] {11374}

HARRISBURG -- Robin Dwayne Blackwelder, 37, of 7400 Hoffner Drive, Harrisburg, died at home after a courageous battle with cancer for the past two years.

The service will be at 2 p.m. Thursday at Harmony Baptist Church, Tom Query Road, Harrisburg. The Rev. Ronald Hargett and the Rev. Bruce Pope will conduct the service. The body will lie in state for 30 minutes prior to the service. The family will receive friends from 7 to 9 tonight at Hartsell Funeral Home, Midland, and other times at the home.

Born Jan. 14, 1966, in Cabarrus County, he is the son of Fay Lisk Blackwelder and the late Rev. Robert E. Blackwelder.

Robin was a 1984 graduate of Central Cabarrus High School. He was employed by Pennsylvania House Furniture in Monroe for 18 years, where he leaves behind many wonderful friends and coworkers. He also leaves behind a wonderful church family, many family members and medical personnel and staff who have attended him and his family during his illness.

He was a dedicated lifetime member of his church and served as a Deacon and Sunday School teacher. He became an ordained minister July 21, 2002. Even though he was not able to fulfill his dream to preach the gospel, he touched many lives in the last two years. His main priority was to spend time with his family, especially his wife, Angel, and son Joshua. He was a devoted, loving husband and father who was dedicated to his family and God. His love for family and God was the driving force that made him a cancer survivor for the past two years.

Robin was preceded in death by his father, Robert E. Blackwelder, on July 30, 1993, and by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Luther Blackwelder and the Rev. and Mrs. Blain Lisk. Aside from his mother Fay Lisk Blackwelder, Mr. Blackwelder is survived by his wife Angel Blackwelder; son Joshua Robert Blackwelder of the home; sister Muriel Dellinger of Charlotte; two brothers, Keith E. Blackwelder of Harrisburg, Billy R. Cabarrus Co., Concord & Kannapolis, Independent Tribune, 10 May 2003, Obituary of Rebecca “Susie” Allmon Blackwelder [#5571A/2] {12667}

“MOUNT PLEASANT — Rebecca “Susie” Allmon Blackwelder went peacefully to be with the Lord on Friday, May 9, 2003.

Funeral service will be at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, May 11, 2003, at Mount Pleasant United Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. Rodney Hagans, Rev. Mike Macdonald and Rev. Mike O’Brien, burial will follow in the church cemetery.

The Blackwelder family will receive friends from 6 to 7:30 p.m. Saturday at Gordon Funeral Home of Mt. Pleasant.

Susie was born in Concord, on July 13, 1908, to Alfred and Rena Hill Allmon. She moved to Mount Pleasant in 1919 where she resided until recent years. Susie was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and aunt, whose life centered on her family and friends. She was preceded in death by her husband of thirty years, Gillon Blackwelder. Susie was a respected resident of Mount Pleasant, where she was known for service to others. She was a member of the Mount Pleasant United Methodist Church where she served for seventy-seven years. She was the church custodian for eighteen of those years. Susie will be remembered as a thoughtful, friendly person who was always helpful to the many parsonage families that have served the church during her membership. Susie loved to travel and spent several weeks each year visiting family who always enjoyed her presence. Susie was also a seamstress, quilter, and doll maker. She has handmade numerous quilts and hundreds of Raggedy Ann and Andy dolls. They are prized possessions of those who are fortunate to have one, because each was made with love and care. Many of her arts and crafts were sold at bazaars to raise money for the church. In addition, each Christmas she made ornaments for every member of her church family. In her spare time, Susie enjoyed gardening and helping deliver Meals on Wheels. All who knew her will miss her dedication and love.

Susie is survived by a daughter, Ereleen Russell, of Concord; grandchildren Gill Leaman and her husband Steven, of Manhattan Beach, Ca., Rebecca Russell and her husband Mike Woods of Kannapolis, and Robbie Russell of Manhattan Beach, Ca.”

"CONCORD - Eugene Dwight Blackwelder died at his home at Taylor Glen Retirement Community on Saturday, March 24. He was born Feb. 15, 1927, in Concord and was the son of Henry Grady Blackwelder Sr. and Dessie Millsapps Blackwelder, now deceased. Also deceased is his brother, H.G. Blackwelder Jr. Mr. Blackwelder graduated from Concord High School. After serving in the U.S. Army, he attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where he was a Phi Beta Kappa graduate in 1950. After teaching English at Concord High School for two years, he returned to UNC-Chapel Hill to complete a year's graduate study. During this year, he also taught freshman English at UNC-Chapel Hill. In 1953, he rejoined the English faculty at Concord High School and was employed by Concord City Schools for more than 30 years. In the early 1970s, he became Director of Instruction and edited the Concord Schools monthly newspaper, Progress Report. In 1961, the Concord Jaycees honored Mr. Blackwelder with the Distinguished Service Award. In 1966, he was awarded a John Hay Fellowship for a year's graduate study in the humanities at Northwestern University. For several years afterward, he taught an elective humanities course at Concord High. For six weeks in the summer of 1973, Mr. Blackwelder and his wife led the first study abroad program for Concord Middle and High School students, which was sponsored by Scholastic International. In the 1960s, Mr. Blackwelder led Concord's first Great Books Discussion group at the original Concord Public Library. He also participated in another Great Books Discussion group in the 1980s. Mr. Blackwelder served on the Board of Directors for Historic Cabarrus during the old courthouse renovation. A lifelong member of McGill Baptist Church, he taught a men's Sunday school class and served as a deacon in the church for many years. Recently, he was honored by being named "Deacon Emeritus." After retiring from Concord City Schools, Mr. Blackwelder and his wife operated a frame shop on McGill, "The Greenwood Tree," for 16 years. Surviving Mr. Blackwelder are his wife of 53 years, Ruby Swisher Blackwelder; sons, Stephen Dwight Blackwelder of Chicago and Joel Edwin Blackwelder and wife, Carol; and grandson, Owen Clay Blackwelder of Charlotte; and a number of nieces and nephews."
