"A BIT OF ROMANCE. Concord Correspondence Charlotte Observer, 13th.:

A bit of romance came to light in town tonight, through the presence of an elderly bride and groom. Some 25 years ago Miss Annie Cress [#5835/2], daughter of Moses Cress, had an importunate suitor in the person of Mr. Jake Blackwelder [#5835], whom she tried to discourage in his assiduous attentions. But he was not to be shaken, and finally to get rid of her ardent suitor she went clear out to Illinois. There she found herself in high favor, and this time with Mr. Jackson Cress, whom she married. Some time ago Mrs. Cress was left a widow and Mr. Blackwelder, hearing of this fact, concluded there was nothing like asking, and Mrs. Cress' reply was that if he would send the money to pay railroad fare to Salisbury she would marry him. The money was forthcoming in a hurry and the two were here today as bride and groom. After a short visit to relatives they will go to Illinois to live."

Iredell Co., Statesville, The Landmark, 14 Jun 1904, Obituary of Col. L. A. Blackwelder [#52D1] {14936}

Col. Blackwelder, Charlotte's Veteran
Policeman, Dead.
Charlotte Observer, 10th.

Col. L. A. Blackwelder died last night at 11:40 o'clock at his home at No. 607 west Seventh street. He had been in a weak condition for several years and for several months an invalid. For several days he has been in a critical condition and his death last night was not unexpected.

Col. Blackwelder was in his 77th year. He is survived by three sons and three daughters. His wife had been dead for many years.

When Col. Lawson Alexander Blackwelder breathed his last, one of the best known characters that ever lived in Mecklenburg county passed away. He was a native of Cabarrus county and lived there until he was past 20 years, but since that time he lived in Charlotte, leaving the Queen City to go to the Mexican war, and going upon the police force when he returned. He was a veteran of the Mexican war and received a pension from the government on account of his services, but he was better known as the veteran policeman. He had served on the police force of Charlotte from the year 1855 until about seven years ago, when he retired with a pension. He was an efficient officer, was reputed to be the best runner in the county, was one of the strongest men in the county and on account of some of his feats as an officer was known by practically everybody in Mecklenburg.

Often when he would start to pursue an offender against the law, he would first sit down and pull off his shoes before starting the race and he was never known to come back empty-handed. Even now people in the county speak of the running feats of the policeman.

Funeral of Ex - Sheriff J. W. Blackwelder at Catawba.

Ex-Sheriff John W. Blackwelder, of Hickory, brother-in-law of Mr. J. W. C. Long, of Statesville, died Saturday evening shortly after 9 o'clock, after an illness of about a week, following a stroke of paralysis. The funeral was held from the residence Tuesday and interment followed at Catawba at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Blackwelder, who was 70 years of age, was a great friend and admirer of the late Charles B. Aycock, and was a candidate for sheriff when Mr. Aycock, then candidate for governor, spoke in Newton. He was elected sheriff of Catawba county, first in 1898, leading his ticket in that election. He was again nominated and elected in the year 1900 and in 1902, although the Democratic party in Catawba county was pledged to two-year terms for officers, and in spite of the fact that Sheriff Blackwelder was not a candidate, the convention lacked only one-half of a vote in nominating him for a third term.

He was elected as mayor of Hickory in the spring of 1908 and served for one term, declining renomination.

After his term of sheriff in 1903, Mr. Blackwelder moved to Hickory and became cashier of the Hickory Banking and Trust Company, now the Consolidated Trust Company. He retired in 1908 on account of his health.

Besides his wife, who was Miss Mary J. Long, Mr. Blackwelder is survived by four children, Bascom B. Blackwelder, George W. Blackwelder, Mrs. J. B. Gibbs and Mrs. Claude A. Jordan, all of Hickory.
