York Co., Rock Hill, The Evening Herald, 9 Dec 1926, "Strange Explosion Costs Life Of Mill Mechanic" {15435}

"William Walter Blackwelder [#52B611], 53, machinist at the Industrial Mill, died at two o'clock this morning in a local hospital, the victim of an unusual accident while engaged at his work late yesterday.

Injuries received in the explosion of a cylinder in the spinning room from which Mr. Blackwelder was melting the head with a blow torch proved fatal a few hours after the blast. One side of Mr. Blackwelder's face and chest were torn away. Death was attributed to the injury to the lung.

The cause of the explosion was not fully determined. The cylinder was a part of a spinning frame. Mr. Blackwelder was said to have been using a blowtorch in his work. He was rushed to the hospital immediately after the accident but efforts to save his life were futile.

Funeral services will be conducted at the home on Cauthen street Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. H. A. Whitten. Interment will take place in New Unity Church cemetery at Fort Mill. Mr. Blackwelder was twice married. His first wife was prior to marriage Miss Ada Munson and of this union the following children survive: Mrs. Annie Hamrick, York; Miss Mae Blackwelder, York; Miss Ruby Blackwelder, Lando; James Blackwelder, York; Miss Maggie Blackwelder, Rock Hill; Henry Blackwelder, Rock Hill.
