“In the name of God amen. I William Breedlove of the County . . . and parish of St. David, being of sound and disposing mind & memory do make . . . last Will and Testament as follows. After my just debts and funeral expenses . . . my beloved wife during her natural life my land and plantation . . . her decease it is my desire that the same be sold to my executors hereafter . . . the money arising from the sale thereof be equally divided & advanc'd my . . . Davis, Ann Williamson, Mary Oglevy Williamson, and Elizabeth Mann . . . upon condition that each of them or their husbands on their behalf give bond and security . . . I give the same to the children of my four daughters Lucy, Ann, Mary Oglivy, and Elizabeth to be equally divided among them, that is to say one fourth part to the children of each daughter, the remaining fourth fifths . . . unto my four daughters . . . and in case my daughter Elizabeth should die without an heir . . . Having heretofore advanced my son Madison what I consider an equal proportion of my estate with my other children it is not my intention to give him anything more. Lastly, I appoint Joseph Mann and George Williamson of Henrico . . . Executors of this my last Will & Testament. In witness whereof I have her unto set my hand and seal this 21st day of September 1801.

Signed, sealed, and acknowledged by the a'd William Breedlove to be his last Will & Testament in presence of

Samuel Batchelder

Wm. W. Batchelder
