History of Buchanan County, Missouri (St. Joseph, MO: St. Joseph Steam Printing Company, 1881), Biography of General R. C. Bradshaw {30065}

General R. C. Bradshaw [#41153], City Assessor, was born in Platte County, Missouri, March, 1840. In 1848, after the death of his father, his mother moved with her family to this city. Here young Bradshaw received his education, and in 1851 went to learn the blacksmith's trade. In 1858, he started a shop on the corner of Seventh and Messanie Streets, for the manufacture of wagons, which he continued until April, 1861. He took an active part in the election of Lincoln, and when the rebellion broke out, in April, 1861, he raised a company of 103 men, subsisting them himself until they joined different commands. He entered the service in June, 1861, as an enlisted man, in Company A, Peabody's Battalion, United States Reserve Corps, and a braver man did not enlist during the rebellion, and the wounds he received are evidence of his active service. After the war, he returned and continued the wagon business. In 1867, 1868 and 1869, he held the office of City Register. After this, he was appointed ticket agent of the St. Joseph and Denver Railroad, which he held for eighteen months. He is now City Assessor. He married Miss Fannie Wild [#41153/1], April 17, 1867, and they have three children: Fannie [#411531], Mary [#411532] and Hero [#411533 ?].

He was a farmer and an avid bowler. He was a member of the Clinton Christian Church. He had lived in Chilhowee until moving to Clinton in 1982. Preceding him in death were his parents; his first wife, Ruby A. Norvell (1979); three brothers, Charlie Norvell, Wayne Norvell and Robert Norvell; four sisters, Lea Ireland, Mollie Smethers, Mable Norvell and Lucille Norvell. Survivors include his wife, Mildred, of the home; two sons, Donald W. Norvell and wife, Anita, Kansas City, and Howard W. Norvell and wife, Frances, Clinton; one stepdaughter, Jean Randol, Springfield; four grandchildren; six step-grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; eight step-great-grandchildren; two step-great-great-grandchildren; along with several nieces and nephews. Graveside services were held August 29 at New Liberty Cemetery, west of Chilhowee, with Rev. Howard Cupp officiating. Pallbearers were Donnie Bradshaw, Terry O'Brien, Troy Bohannon, Ryan Bohannon, Randy McClure and Paul Norvell.”

p. 582 (Biography of William Bradshaw) {32112}

“William Bradshaw [#283261] was born in the "Old North State" (Caldwell County), in May, 1843, and, when a small boy, was taken by his parents, Burton [#28326] and Sarah (Kerby) [#28326/1] Bradshaw, to Hickory County, Mo. His parents were born, reared and married in their native State, and died in Missouri, the father many years ago, and the mother about 1881. William Bradshaw is the eldest of their six children, and about the time he reached manhood the Rebellion broke out, and he immediately joined the Federal forces, serving three years in the Missouri State Militia, received his discharge at Osceola, St. Clair County, Mo. On the 21st of February, 1864, he was married to Miss L. G. Poe [#283261/1], who was born in Hickory County, Mo., in 1845, and by her has a family of five children: Albert M. [#2832611], Henry C. [#2832612], Mary C. [#2832613], Sarah E. [#2832614], and Eliza F. [#2832615]. Mr. Bradshaw owns a fine farm of 185 acres of land, and gives much of his attention to raising blooded stock, having a fine herd of short-horn cattle, and a large drove of Poland China hogs. In politics Mr. Bradshaw is a Republican. His grandfather was Seth Bradshaw [#2832], a native of North Carolina, who was an early resident of Hickory County, Mo., and there died. His mother's maiden name was Goolsby, and she was born in Ireland. Hawkins Kerby, the maternal grandfather of Mr. Bradshaw, was a farmer of Caldwell County, N.C. Mrs. Bradshaw's parents, Alvin and Rebecca (Harris) Poe, were born in Kentucky, in 1811, and February 21, 1811, respectively. They were married May 6, 1829, and the father is still living in Benton County, Mo., but the mother is deceased. They were the parents of eight children.”
