Crawford County biographies:

“James W. Mckinney, of the drug firm of McKinney & Kerr, was born in Sangamon County, Ill., in 1862, and is a son of Joseph and Jane (Erwin) McKinney. Joseph was a grain and lumber dealer, born in Jersey County, Ill., in 1833. In 1863 he moved to Girard, Ill., and engaged in the lumber business. He died July 13, 1871, while in the prime of life. The mother was born in Jersey County, Ill., in 1836, and is now living in Girard, Ill. She has three children: Edward, of Greeley, Colo.; James W., and Nona, wife of F. J. Lincoln, of Chicago, Ill., ticket agent of the Chicago & Alton Railroad. Our subject was reared in Girard, and at the age of eighteen began to clerk in a clothing store. In 1884 he came to Van Buren, where he and F. W. Langley engaged in the drug business. At the expiration of six months he purchased his partner's share, and in July, 1886, entered the firm, which has since been known as McKinney & Kerr. They have a fine trade, are careful and industrious men, and rank among our best citizens. May 27, 1885, Mr. McKinney married Miss Fannie A. Post, daughter of U. S. Post, of Girard, Ill. Mrs. McKinney was born in Macoupin County, Ill., in 1866. Mr. McKinney is a Democrat, a Mason and K. of P.”

{12759}

“Frank G. Kerr [#2D41], junior member of the above firm, was born in Saline County, Mo., in 1857, and is a son of John and Frances (Gault) Kerr. The father was of Scotch-Irish descent, and was born in West Virginia in 1825. When young he went to Saline County, where he married and passed his life. He was a machinist, and died in 1868. The mother was born in Virginia and died in 1875. She had three children: Frank G., Mitchell D., groceryman at Gillingham, Saline County, Mo., and James W., partner of Mitchell D. Frank G. was educated in his native county, and at the age of thirteen began to clerk in a drug store at Cambridge, where he remained about four years. He then clerked in Marshall, Mo., eight years, and in 1881 and 1882 took a course of lectures in pharmacy at St. Louis. Having attended the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy in 1882 and 1883, he graduated from that institution in the latter year, and in April he and P. H. Franklin started a drug store at Marshall, Mo., under the firm name of Franklin & Kerr. In 1885 Mr. Kerr sold his interest to his partner, and in 1886, came to Van Buren. In July, 1886 he became a partner of Mr. McKinney, as above stated. Mr. Kerr is a Democrat, and cast his first presidential vote for Hancock in 1880. He belongs to the Masonic fraternity.”

Obituary of Mrs. Theresa Malinda Kizer [#173/1] (source unknown) {290}

“Gone But Not Forgotten

Ozark, Ark., March 23, 1919.

In memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Theresa Malinda Kizer, who departed this life March 3, 1919, at her son's Mr. Taylor Kizer. She had been a sufferer for about 15 years, but gradually grew worse until at last her spirit took its flight to the great beyond where there is no sorrow, pain nor death. Oh, how she did suffer, no one can tell. I was at her bedside a great deal and all was done that loving hands could do, but all in vain. She knew every thing until about one hour before she died; if she had lived until the 13th day of March she would have been 83 years old. She leaves one brother and one sister; six children and a host of grandchildren and friends. Four of her children were present during her sickness and death. Mrs. M. J. Loyd of Jenks, Okla. and Mrs. Laura Anderson, of Floydada, Texas, came, but too late. She formerly made her home at her son's, John Kizer, but on the 8th of January she was taken to Taylor Kizer's to stay awhile. She visited around among her children.

Funeral service was conducted by Brother Jim McClellan, at the Bourland graveyard, where a large number was gathered to pay the last respect; after that she was laid to rest beside her husband, who departed this life 24 years ago. To know her was to love her. Loving words and advice she would give her children and grandchildren.

Weep not, children, mother can't come back to you, but you can meet her where there is on more good-byes.

She was born in Washington, Ark.; moved to Franklin county when about 13 years of age. Her mother died when she was a small girl and she stayed with her father until she was about 22 years old.

. . . – Written by one who loved her.”

Franklin County biographies

pp. 1251-1252: {1178}

“William M. Kizer [#173], one of the leading citizens of White Oak Township, was born in Morgan County, Mo., April 18, 1837, and is a son of Valentine and Frances (Davis) Kizer, natives of Bedford County, Tenn., and North Carolina, respectively. They were married in the father’s native county, and about 1831 came to Missouri, locating in Salem County, where they resided for a while, and afterwards removed to Osage County, where they died. They were farmers and both died at the age of about forty-two years, leaving a family of five small children in destitute circumstances: Nancy H., Susan, William, John D. and Frances. All are living but Frances. They were reared by an uncle, who brought them from Missouri to Franklin County, Ark., in 1854. William began working as a farm laborer after coming to Arkansas, and continued this occupation for four years, when he entered a tract of land, and began farming on his own responsibility. At the end of two years he gave up farming to aid the Southern cause, enlisting in July, 1862, in Company I, Thirty-fourth Arkansas Infantry. At the close of the war his company was disbanded at Marshall, Tex., and he resided in that State, whither his family had previously moved, until November, 1865, when he returned to Franklin County, Ark., and here has since made his home. He was without a penny that he could call his own at the close of the war, but by industry and economy he was soon able to purchase a tract of land, consisting of forty acres, which he has from time to time increased, until he now owns 240 acres of valuable and well-cultivated land. His success in life is due to his indomitable energy, perseverance, and good management, and to his cheerful, practical and intelligent wife. On the 26th of January, 1859, he was married to Miss Thurzy M. Shaver, a daughter of Jacob B. Shaver. She was born in Washington County, Ark., March 13, 1836, and her union with Mr. Kizer resulted in the birth of nine children, six of whom are living: Madora J., wife of W. A. Lloyd; Laura Lorena, wife of T. F. Anderson; John A., Taylor E., Clark M. and Martha M. Those deceased are Jacob V., Sarepta L. and Flora Ann. Mr. and Mrs. Kizer, and all but their youngest child, are members of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and he is a Democrat in his political views. Mrs. Kizer’s father was a native of North Carolina, but removed to Tennessee and an early day, from which State he came to Washington County, Ark. He was a soldier in the War of 1812, being at the battle of New Orleans, and died in 1883 at the extreme old age of ninety-six.”
