ATLAS OF ALLEN COUNTY, OHIO (Philadelphia, PA: R. H. Harrison, 1880)

On page 95, there appears a map of German Township as it appeared in 1880, showing each of the landowners at that time. By comparing this map to the 1880 federal census of the same area, it appears that John Shambarger and his wife Elizabeth lived with her father Jeremiah D. Haines. Haines owned a plot of land in Section 34 of this township, while no Shambargers were shown as landowners.

JOHN LAMBERTON

Passed Away Early Last Evening—
Funeral To-morrow.

Shortly after 8 o'clock last night, at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Jacob Spyker, John Lamberton, deputy auditor for Allen county, quietly and peacefully breathed his last.

The death illness of John Lamberton is indeed hardly less remarkable than said. On Sunday morning one week ago he was taken violently ill. He had been at the office on the day before, and did not complain of being ill. The direct cause of his death was an old malady, from which he has been a sufferer for years. On Sunday he suffered much pain and since then has grown rapidly worse until the hour of his death.

On Tuesday last a change came, and he mistaking the approach of death for the return of health whispered "I am better now." Let us all hope that he is and through all eternity will be better.

The life story of John Lamberton is a true tale of a good man, without any augmentation or parade he moved along quietly, noiselessly and his pleasant manners and gentlemanly character always made him loved and admired. Wherever he went he was surrounded by a host of friends.

He was born in Ferry county, Pennsylvania, March 2, 1844. When 18 years of age he went to Franklin, Pa., residing there until 16 years ago when he came to Lima. For eight years he was engaged with his brother, W. H. Lamberton, in the grocery business. One year he lived in Chicago, and for the past four years he has been deputy county auditor. During his residence in Lima he has lived with his sister. He leaves a mother and four sisters, Mrs. Jacob Spyker, Mrs. Adam Baker, Cumberland, Pa.; Mrs. Louis Spyker, Cridersville, and Mrs. Wilbur Cox, South Elizabeth street, Lima.

Mr. Lamberton was one of the oldest and most active members of Lima Lodge of Elks. He was also prominent and has held the important offices in the Royal Arcanum Lodge of this city. He was never married.

Funeral services will be held at the residence Friday afternoon at two o'clock.

Allen Co., Lima News, 12 Feb 1961, "McKissick [#23732]-Martin Vows Exchanged Feb. 5" {21491}

McKissick-Martin Vows Exchanged Feb. 5

An impressive ceremony solemnized at 3:30 p.m. Feb. 5 in Immanuel Lutheran Church united in marriage Miss Caroline M. McKissick to Donald M. Martin Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Cranson McClure, 333 Prospect, are parents of the bride, and the bridegroom is the son of Donald Martin, Huntsville and Mrs. Angelia Martin, 315 E. Pearl.

The Rev. Paul Single was officiating minister, before the altar adorned with seven branched candelabra, white gladioli and huckleberry foliage. Miss Linda Landeck and Mrs. Linda Staley included in their organ and vocal selections "The Lord's Prayer," "Perfect Love," and "Entreat Me Not to Leave The."

The bride approached the altar wearing a gown of deep lustrous satin designed with rounded neckline, long tapering sleeves and full skirt falling in soft pleats and attached to a fitted bodice. The back had a large bow trim between two deep pleats and she wore a veil of imported French illusion held in place with a queen's crown of crystals, pearls and rhinestones. She carried a white prayerbook topped with a bouquet of white feathered carnations and pink sweetheart roses, showered with ribbon.

Mrs. Dorothy Morgan was her sister's matron of honor and Miss Mary Stemen the bridesmaid. Sheryl and Steve Morgan were flower girl and ring bearer. The bride's attendants wore street length lavender satin frocks made with low necklines, kimona sleeves and contrasting lilac sash and back bow. They wore lilac colored bowknots and veils and carried colonial bouquets of raspberry carnations and orchid gladioli. The flower girl had a puffed sleeved white nylon frock and a matching headband. Her straw basket was filled with roses and pompons.

Attending to the duties of best man was Phillip Petree, and seating guests were Jerry Burkholder and Thomas Cira.

A blue nylon frock over flowered taffeta was selected by the bride's mother. She had blue accessories and corsage of white feathered carnations and Sarah Hill roses. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a coral pink frock of taffeta with puffed sleeves. She had black accessories and her flowers were carnations and roses.

One hundred and twenty-five guests were received by the bridal party and their parents in the church Fellowship rooms where the traditional tiered wedding cake centered the buffet table decorated in pink, orchid and white.

When the couple left for a short trip the bride was wearing a grey wool suit with which she combined black accessories, red coat and hat and corsage of white roses.

Their future address will be 853½ Bellefontaine. The bride is a laboratory technician at Memorial Hospital and is a graduate of Shawnee High School and Carnegie College. The bridegroom, a Lima Senior High School alumnus, is employed at the R. F. Johnston Paint Store.

Fulton Co., Pike Twp., Winameg Cemetery {17935}

LOCATION: The Winameg Cemetery is located about one-half mile north of Winameg, on the east side of County Road 10-2, in Pike Township (SE 1/4 Sec 4, T10S, R3E.)

HISTORY: The Aetna Cemetery, as it was first named, occupies land deeded to M.J. Wilkinson in 1835. The first burial at this site was that of Catherine Wilson in 1837. Catherine was a sister of Emery and Martin Wilson, they being among the first settlers of Pike Township. In 1885 the one acre cemetery was deeded to the township trustees and additions followed in 1908, 1938, 1964 and 1977. In 1881 the United Brethren constructed a building on the west side of the road and north, known as the Beulah Church. The old section of the Winameg Cemetery is believed to contain some unmarked graves.

DEATH
Continental Ohio
January 21st 1891

Dear Brothers and Sisters Once more With Sadness I Write you that Father is Dead He Died this morning at Half Past 12 o'clock He Sufferd tearbley for about 2 Weeaks With the Kidney troublly and His Stumick He Said that He Would See Mother Befor Long Last Saterdag and Shure Enough He did go to See Her Last Night We Will Lay Him away to morow at 2 o'clock He Will Be Put Right Beside mother and just as nice as mother Was dont fret for them for I Know There Better off and if We Live Right We Will See Them in the good Land and Live With them throughout Eternety This morning takes me Back When We Were With them and How they Worked and Toiled for Us and How farther and mother youst to Pray around our Humbel Home if they Were Poor in Wourldy goods they Were Rich in god and Loved the Savure When We Look at This Life its But a momet of time
O Let Us Live for Him that does oll things Well Lew and Fred Was at His Bed side When He died
I Hope you ar oll Well Let the girles know of farthers death I know it Will Be Sad News to them But We oll
Have to died Sooner ar Later
I Will Close for This Time Hoping you oll the Hapiness in the Wourld

Write to Us good By
