A History of Tennessee . . . (Chicago, IL: Goodspeed Publishing Company, 1887), Smith County

Biography of Hon W. R. Shaver [#272] {19079}

“Hon. W. R. Shaver was born in Sumner County, April 28, 1837. He was educated at the Three Forks Institute, Wilson County. He owns the celebrated Clinton College farm of 500 acres, which was in its day the alma mater of noted statesmen, and the finest college in Tennessee. He is president of both Farmers’ Association of Smith County, and the Agricultural Mechanical Association of De Kalb, County. He is a stockholder and director of the Lebanon National Bank, and president and chief stockholder in the Lebanon and Trousdale Ferry Turnpike Company. His herd of thorough-bred registered shorthorn cattle, and other stock are of the best. February 3, 1861, he married Lou C. Newby of Smith county. Their three children were Lou D., Hettie L., and Annie L. The first two died in childhood, and the last in her sixteenth year, December 5, 1883, at Maple Hill Academy. In politics a Democrat, he was elected senator to the XLIV General Assembly, November, 1884. He has been Deputy Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, in Tennessee; Grand Lecturer of the same, and Grand Master of the Grand Council in Tennessee. At present he is Grand Representative of the Grand Lodge and Chapter of Virginia, and Tennessee, and of the General Grand Council of the State of Minnesota in Tennessee. Both he and his wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. His father was born in 1813, in Sumner County, and was a farmer and carpenter. After his marriage, in 1839, and about two years in Missouri, he came back to Lebanon and bought 100 acres near there and while carpentering died in 1846, from lockjaw caused by running a nail in his foot. Mrs. Shaver’s mother, Susan Sangford Shaver, was born in 1815 in Sumner County, Tenn., and died in 1881 in Benton County, Mo., ”

*Smith Co., Smith County Record, Dec 1883, Obituary of Annie Shaver [#2723]
{19080}*

“an indescribable gloom fell like a pall on this community yesterday at the announcement of the untimely death at Maple Hill Academy of Annie, the seventeen year old daughter, and only child, of W.R. and Mrs. Lou Shaver of this vicinity. She was buried today in the family graveyard and , not withstanding it rained continuously, her bier was surrounded by a vast company of friends.”

Smith Co., Smith County Record, 9 May 1884

"W.R. Shaver is putting a first class fence around his family burying ground and costly marble works at the graves of his children."

History of Tennessee From the Earliest Time to The Present (Nashville, TN: Goodspeed Publishing Co., 1887)

Alfred E. Bell [#321/1] {16524}

“Alfred E. Bell, a well known farmer of the Ninth District, was born February 10, 1836, in Sumner County, the sixth of nine children of Patton and Jane (Gilbert) Bell. The father was born in Sumner County in 1808, of German descent. He was a farmer by occupation. His death occurred June 10, 1884. His grandparents came from Germany. His grandfather attained the unusual age of one hundred and six years. Mrs. Bell was born February 18, 1804, near Petersburg, Va., and came to Sumner County with her parents about 1820, and married April 28, 1827. The subject of our sketch married, November 22, 1855, Emeline C. Cline [#321]. To this union seven children have been born: Mary Jane, Amanda (now Mrs. Rutledge), Alfred P., Charley J. (deceased), Ellie Louisa (now Mrs. Garrison), Willie F., Jessie M. and Ada K. After marriage our subject purchased a farm of 150 acres near the Kentucky line. In 1865 he moved to the Third District, and farmed rented land for two years. He then came to present place of residence, and bought fifty acres, to which he has added until he now owns 300 acres of valuable land, well improved. At the outbreak of the war he enlisted and was elected captain, in which capacity he served through the campaign. He took part in the battle of Shiloh and many other severe contests. He was captured at Scottsville, Ky., and taken to Johnson's Island, in Lake Erie, September 25, 1863. He was retained there until June, 1865. He is a life-long Democrat, and cast his first presidential vote for James Buchanan. He is a prosperous agriculturist and esteemed citizen”

Angleas of Sumner County (from <http://www.rootsweb.com/~tnsumner/angleasc.htm>, 2005)

Submitted by Robert Anglea (r.anglea@worldnet.att.net)

For more information see A Band of Angleas: A History of the Anglea, Angel, Angle, etc Family, by Robert Anglea (Gregath Pub., 1991)

Family legend says there were four brothers that migrated to Sumner County, Tennessee some time prior to 1820. This is also indicated by the 1820 Census of Sumner County, Tennessee, which lists, Walthell, John and Andrew Angel and another male family member about the same age (probably James) in the household of Walthell Angle. Sumner County Courthouse Records of this period have these four names recorded quite often with the surname spelled "Anglea", "Angel" and "Angle". Andrew, James, John and Walthol Anglea are listed in an 1824 Tax List of Sumner County. There were other Anglea/Angel/Angle families in the surrounding communities of Sumner.

Davidson County, North Carolina (later Tennessee) records indicated that a Captain John Ingles, a Revolutionary War Veteran was granted 3840 acres of land in Davidson County on the waters of Bledsoe's Creek on April 4, 1785. This area later became Sumner County, Tennessee. On March 21, 1796, the year that Tennessee became a state, the Deed Books of Sumner County record a sale of 4480 acres of land on Bledsoe Creek by John Ingles, of Buncombe County, North Carolina to General James Winchester for $2000.

Early records of Sumner County (ca. 1800) mentions children by the name of John Angel, an orphan 16 years of age or older, who chose Henry D. Parmer as his guardian. Also, a Patsy Angel orphan of John Angle, having attained the age of 14, chose Jess Hainey for her guardian. The 1840 Census of Sumner County listed a Hartwell Angel (Anglea), which research indicates was a cousin of the four Anglea/Angel brothers.

Information gleaned from Sumner County, Tennessee Courthouse records and Census records, indicate that Anglea/Angel families moved into the area just North of Cairo, Tennessee near Rocky Creek before 1820. Cairo was a "river port" community on the banks of the Cumberland River and the center of trade for Sumner and Wilson Counties in the early 1800s. A John Anglea purchased a land lot in the town of Cairo in the year 1820 and sold it in February of 1827. Andrew Anglea/Angel purchased land near Rocky Creek from a Mr. Humphrey Bate in 1822. There were also Anglea/Angel/Angel family surnames in early Census records (1810-1850) of the East Tennessee counties of Carter, Grainger, Fentress, Overton and White. Some of these families contained familiar family names.

According to the U.S. Census Records, the Anglea brothers (Walter/Walthell, Andrew, John and James) were born in Virginia. There are several records of Andrew Anglea found in Cumberland County, Virginia in the early 1800's. There is a voting record of Andrew's in Cumberland County, Virginia election of 1813. Andrew and his brothers probably migrated to Sumner County, Tennessee with the Charlton family some time between 1815 and 1820. Samuel Charlton's Will was probated in Sumner County, Tennessee in 1819, listing Andrew and his wife, Fanny, as heirs.

There is an Anglea community in Sumner County, Tennessee just South of the road between Oak Grove and Westmoreland, Tennessee. The 1948 Hammond New World Atlas lists a town in that area as Anglea, Tennessee. In later years the Atlas and Geological Maps lists the community as Angeltown, Tennessee. It is believed that the Anglea community was named in the late 1800's or early 1900's after a store owner by the name of Anglea.

Families of the four (4) Anglea brothers are today, spread all over the United States. From the time of Andrew, John, Walter, and James Anglea/Angel their descendants have migrated to Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Kentucky, Illinois, Oklahoma, Colorado, Texas, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, California and probably other states. Some of their descendants are still living in Sumner County, Tennessee and the immediate area around Sumner County.

Little is known about the family of John Anglea/Angel (one of the four brothers). He married Polly (Mary) Shaver in Sumner County, Tennessee on December 13, 1819. As mentioned before, he was listed in the 1820 Census of Sumner County. The 1830 Census of Sumner lists a John Angle with the family count as; (Males: 2 - less than 5 years old, 1 - 5 to 10 yrs. old and 1 - 30 to 40 yrs. old); (Females: 1 - less than 5 years old, 1- 5 to 10 yrs. Old and 1 - 20 to 30 yrs old). John is buried in the Shaver Cemetery near Castalian Springs. His grave marker gives the dates: Nov. 14, 1798 - Aug. 18, 1837, Age 37 yrs.
